CAPTAIN'S CORNER:

Good day fellow Nomads,
Below please find my monthly report.

After much uncertainty due to the weather forecast, the final decision to proceed with our game was made at 07:30 on the morning of game day. What a wise choice it turned out to be! We enjoyed a beautiful day at Knysna Golf Club without a single drop of rain. As always, the Knysna team gave us a warm welcome and made us feel right at home.

The halfway house, ranked among the top 10 in the country, served us a delightful selection of treats - thank you to the staff for going the extra mile and making the day extra special.

I had the privilege of playing alongside Ivan Palframan, the Captain of Knysna Golf Club. At over 70 years of age, his ability to strike the ball with such power and grace is truly inspirational. There are not many who can hit a ball like he does!

As always, Bertie and the rest of the Pink Ladies were outstanding and deserve a hearty round of applause. A special mention and congratulations to Bertie, who celebrated her birthday on 9 June. If you happen to pass a flower or chocolate stall on your way to Plettenberg Bay Golf Club, consider picking up a little something to spoil her - she deserves it.

Thank you to all our players for your excellent behaviour during prizegiving - your conduct is appreciated.

A warm welcome to our two newly inducted members: Jaco Pieters and Jaco Groenewald. We trust you will enjoy your journey as Nomads and the camaraderie that comes with it.

To the committee - thank you for your continuous hard work and dedication.

Looking ahead, in just over six weeks, we'll host the Seaboard Weekend, which includes the Andrew Mentis Fundraising Day on Friday, 8 August at Pinnacle Point Golf Club. This event is more than just a golf day - it's an opportunity to showcase to non-Nomads who we are and what we stand for. Please invite a friend or two to join us on the day.

On Saturday, we compete in the Seaboard Challenge, where Southern Cape, Boland, Western Province, Border, and Eastern Cape will battle it out for the coveted Seaboard Trophy. On Sunday, we'll have our regular monthly game, but with several visiting players joining in. The last two games will be played on the Mossel Bay Golf Club. Please keep an eye on your inbox for entry forms and submit them promptly - spots are limited!

Over the weekend of 16 June, I had the honour of attending Border Nomads' 50th Anniversary celebrations. The event took place on the scenic (and very challenging) Olivewood Golf Course. I must congratulate Border Nomads on a successful and well-organised weekend. There was a strong sense of pride among the Border members - thank you for your exceptional hospitality.

Our next game will be held on 6 July at Plettenberg Bay Golf Club. I look forward to seeing you all there.

Yours in Nomads,
Fanus Truter
