CAPTAIN'S CORNER:

Dear Fellow Nomads,

I trust this message finds you well.

Our monthly game took place at the stunning Plettenberg Bay Country Club, where the weather certainly kept us on our toes. We experienced a full spectrum of conditions - sunshine, wind, rain and then sunshine again. Despite the unpredictability, it turned out to be a thoroughly enjoyable day.

A heartfelt thank you to the incredible staff at Plettenberg Bay for treating us like royalty. Your warm hospitality did not go unnoticed. A special word of appreciation goes to Elroy, whose dedication and daily communication ensure that all our needs were met - thank you for going the extra mile.

I had the honour of playing alongside Charles Lord, Captain of the Plettenberg Bay County Club. It's easy to see why the staff are so welcoming and helpful - leadership by example truly makes a difference.

To our local sponsor, Stanmar Motors, a sincere thank you for your continued support. Greg and Jason, we are grateful for your generosity.

As always, Bertie and the Pink Ladies were exceptional. Your efforts are deeply appreciated, and I owe you an apology for not acknowledging you during prizegiving - my sincere apologies.

Thank you to all our players for your excellent conduct during the prizegiving ceremony. Your sportsmanship and camaraderie are what makes Nomads special.

To the committee, thank you once again for your hard work and dedication. A special mention to Christo - thank you for the fantastic prize table, and congratulations on reaching your 200th game!

Looking ahead, our next events are:

- Andrew Mentis Game – 8 August at Pinnacle Point Golf Course
- Seaboard Challenge – 9 August at Mossel Bay Golf
- Monthly Game – 10 August at Mossel Bay Golf Course

I hope the Seaboard weekend will be a memorable experience for all - an opportunity to reconnect with old friends and make new ones. While I encourage everyone to compete to the best of their ability, I also urge you to be especially welcoming and helpful to our guests. Let's show them the spirit of Southern Cape Nomads - and keep those trophies at home!

Yours in Nomads
