CAPTAIN'S CORNER:

Dear fellow Nomads,

We enjoyed a fantastic monthly game at Knysna Golf Club, with beautiful weather and an occasion that will remain a very special memory for Southern Cape Nomads.

The highlight of the day was celebrating John Winton's incredible 600th game and presenting him with his 60-year tie. John's journey with Nomads is nothing short of extraordinary. Six decades of commitment, friendship, service and dedication represent a lifetime of memories and an invaluable contribution to an organisation that means so much to all of us.

It was a tremendous honour for Southern Cape Nomads to award John honorary membership. This was a small but heartfelt way of recognizing the enormous contribution he has made to Nomads over the years. John's milestone is not just a celebration of the number of games he has played, but a tribute to the friendships he has built, the lives he has touched and the legacy he continues to leave behind. It was a privilege to share this special day with him, and I hope he knows just how much he is appreciated and respected by all of us. Congratulations, John, on an achievement few will ever match.

It was also a pleasure to host our National Chairman, Brandon Stainthorpe on his monthly game visit with Southern Cape. Thank you for joining us and being part of such a meaningful occasion.

A sincere thank you to our national sponsors — SAB, Stella Artois, Hollywood Bets, TaylorMade, Diageo and Johnnie Walker Blonde — for their continued support.

Thank you to our Game Day Sponsor, PCL Auto and Peter Leibrandt, for your generous support. A special word of appreciation also goes to Jos Matthysen and Dominik Dimatellis for their sponsorship towards John's big day.

A big thank you to our Pink Ladies, Berti, Hanlie, Zalinda and Bets, for all their help and support.

We also welcome Brandon Barnard, who was reinstated to our club.

Finally, to everyone I may not have had the opportunity to thank personally, but who helped make John's day so memorable, I thank each and every one of you from the bottom of my heart. Your generosity, time and effort helped create a fitting celebration for a very special Nomad.

Thank you all for contributing to a memorable day of golf, friendship and fellowship.
