CAPTAIN'S CORNER:

Our monthly game at Mossel Bay Golf Club was truly one for the books. Mossel Bay decided to show off by giving us a windless day and some of the best weather you could ask for. The course was in excellent condition, and I had the privilege of witnessing some outstanding golf. One of my fourball partners, Christo Langehoven, delivered an incredible performance with 46 points. Well done, Christo! And thank you for your generous sponsorship through the Coastal Group of Companies.

A big thank you also goes to our committee and the Pink Ladies; Bets Theron and Hanlie de Boer for going the extra mile to make our monthly game such a success.

On Saturday, 15 November, 18 of our Southern Cape members competed against Eastern Cape for the Southeastern Trophy at a very windy St Francis Links. Facing South Africa's number one course was a challenge, but we gave it our best. Congratulations to Chris Lessing, captain of Eastern Cape, and his team on their victory. We'll be back next year to settle the score!

On Sunday, 16 November, we enjoyed the friendship and camaraderie of the Eastern Cape Nomads at St Francis Bay Golf Course. Space in our vehicles was limited, so we left plenty of golf balls behind—and didn't worry too much about prizes! It was a beautiful day, and we certainly can't blame the well-groomed greens for our scores.

On Tuesday, 18 November, a few of us had the privilege of attending the Gary Player 65-Year Award Function at the Goose Valley Golf Estate. I could write a whole book about the experience, but I'll sum it up in one word: SPECTACULAR. Thank you, Mr. Gary Player, for everything you've done for golf, for Nomads, for the less privileged, and for South Africa over the years. And well done to Alten Hulme for arranging such a memorable day.

All the best to Leon Coetzee and his team with Golforama duties at the Sunshine Tour's Vodacom Origins of Golf Final that is taking place at Pezula Golf Estate from 17-23 November.

Looking ahead, on 7 December we'll play our Gold Cup game, where the winners of all the different competitions will be announced. Some of you might need to bring a trailer for all the prizes—because at Nomads, the saying "once a winner, always a winner" truly holds!

Yours in Nomads,
Fanus Truter
